

T.E.Y.C

Cadet Gazette

The entries to name the newsletter were given to the commodore who after a lot of deliberation chose Joe Denny's entry. Well done Joe you are now the proud owner of the cadet newsletter title.

At last month's cadet night we looked at points of sail using a model yacht very kindly lent to us for the evening by a friend.

We then put our engineering skills to work to design a vessel from tin foil to take a cargo of marbles. There were some interesting ideas and Scarlett successfully designed a boat that she loaded with 127 marbles before it sank.

The cadet night was followed by a curry evening so once everyone had had their fill of curry a donation bought you a piece of tin foil to see if Scarlett's record could be broken. Many different designs were tried but it was Neil Woodbridge's vessel that won the day carrying a cargo of 225 marbles before descending to the bottom. Thanks to everyone for taking part and £36 was raised for the cadets.

Competition

The entries for the t-shirt competition will be given to the commodore for him to choose the lucky winner whose design will feature on this year's cadet t-shirt.

Next month's competition is to design the centre mounting for the award medals. The design needs to be in a circle. The winning entry will be converted to fit by the trophy shop. Entries need to be in by the May cadet night.

Training

Don't forget that there is training for older cadets and adults on the mezzanine floor during the cadet evening and if demand requires it the sessions can run later.

Up and coming events

Easter Sunday 16th April Family Day and Easter Egg hunt. First chance this year to get onto the water arrive around 12.30

Friday April 21st evening sail arrive to rig around 18.15

Next cadet meeting Friday 5th May

Cadet Regatta 12th, 13th and 14th May

Please fill in the entry form and return by the 30th April, the earlier they are returned the easier it is to plan.

Articles Wanted

Don't forget that this is your news letter so if you have a story, poem, picture, something interesting you have done, an achievement you may have received or anything else let me have the information and it will appear in the next issue.